Dresden, February 28.

THE Poliſh Emiſſary, who was ſent into Tartary to reclaim the Priſoners taken by the Cham's Troops in their laſt Incurſions into Poland againſt the Ruſſians, reports, that there is likely to be Troubles in the Crimea among the Tartars themſelves. Count Fleming, Great Maſter of the Artillery of Lithuania, had an Audience of Leave to Day of their Poliſh Majeſties, and this Evening ſets out on his Return to Lithuania, but is to go to the Court of Berlin in his Way. We have had exceſſive cold Weather almoſt four Months, the like never known in this Country before. The 25th Inſtant the Duke of Saxe-Weiſſenfels arrived here, being invited by his Poliſh Majeſty to partake of ſome extraordinary Diverſions with which the Carnaval is to cloſe.

Vienna, Feb. 20. On the 11th Inſtant a Courier arrived from Rome, with an Account, that Pope Clement XII. died on the 6th Inſtant. His Name was Laurence Corſini, deſcended of an ancient and illuſtrious Family of Florence, of which Family was Andrew Corſini Biſhop of Fieſole, who died in 1373, and was canonized in 1629, by Urban VIII. There were alſo two Cardinals of the ſame Family, the one named Peter Corſini, who died in 1405, the other Nereo Corſini, who died in 1678. The ſaid Laurence Corſini was born on the 17th of April 1652. On the 17th of May 1706, he was made a Cardinal by Clement XI. and upon the Death of Benedict XIII. was choſen Pope on the 12th of July 1730. Our Cardinal Archbiſhop Count Colonitz is on his Departure from hence for Rome, to aſſiſt in the Conclave which is to be held for chuſing a new Pope; and an Expreſs having been diſpatch'd to Cardinal Sinzendorf at Breſlau, he is daily expected here on his Way to Rome upon the ſame Occaſion. The Seaſon is very rigorous here, with frequent Snows and hard Froſts, ſo that for ſeveral Weeks paſt the Danube has been frozen over in this Neighbourhood; and by Means of the deep Snows the Streets of this City are hardly paſſable.

Whitehall, Feb. 21, 1739-40.

Whereas on the 8th Day of January laſt paſt, in the Night-time, the Barn of William Slade, of Blewberry, in the County of Berks, was maliciouſly ſet on Fire by ſome wicked Perſons, as 'tis believ'd, of the ſame Pariſh, and the ſaid Barn, with the Outhouſes thereto adjoining, and alſo a conſiderable Quantity of Corn and Grain, together with the winnowing Tackle, Sacks, and Implements of Husbandry were by the ſaid Fire entirely conſumed: His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovery of the Perſons concerned in ſo wicked an Act, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them who ſhall impeach or diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein. HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Miniſter, Church-wardens and Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh of Blewberry, do hereby promiſe to give to ſuch Diſcoverer a Reward of Ten Pounds.
